"For His Name"

A society of King's Daughters was organized at South Canaan September 16th 1887 with a membership of five. Mrs D. W. Moore was chosen president, Miss Hattie Willard secretary, Miss Hattie Oakes treasurer. The society agreed to take a five dollar share in the Pinanda Mission school South Africa, also to send some religious papers to a colporter in Ohio.

Nov. 18. 1887 The meeting opened with a song, Bible reading and prayer. The chapter read was the 13th of 1 Cor. and we were earnestly desired to have charity to all, and to repeat evil of no one. Four new members were added, making the membership nine.

Jan. 14th 1888 There were six of us present today.
Our president was not there. The meeting closed with a song, prayer, and mispah.

Feb 18th 1888 There were eight of us present, and we had a good meeting. It was agreed to have an entertainment and supper to supply the treasury, and God's guidance and help was asked to carry it out.

March 3rd 1888. We had a little meeting, and then rehearsed our pieces for the entertainment, and discussed plans for the supper.

March 18th 1888 The meeting was held at Mrs. Coker's.
It was decided to have the entertainment Wed. eve.
Mar. 21st

Mar 21st Owing to the storm and bad traveling the entertainment was postponed.

April 25th 1888 There were thirteen present and we had a good meeting. Two new members were added to our number today making the membership eleven. The entertainment was appointed for. Tues. eve May 1st

May 1st 1888 The Kings Daughters had an entertainment and supper. The entertainment consisted of a song, ("While the Days are Going By") responsive Bible reading, a dialogue, ("Stirring up the Gifts") reading, recitations, violin music, and remarks by Mr Moore about the Kings Daughters and their mode of work; it was closed with a prayer by Mr Reynolds.

There were but few present but all seemed to enjoy themselves and we had a pleasant all around.

The receipts were $12.48.

May 9th 1888 There were but six present. The meeting was held at Mrs Dakes. Martha Willard led the meeting so she did not consider it a good one. Ways of using our money was discussed. It was decided to inquire as to the worthiness and needs of a poor family at So. Canaan.

May 16th 1888 Mailed 16 1/2 lbs. of papers to Rev. J. B. Mitchell, Colporteur, Defiance, O.

Later the papers have never been heard from.

June 8th 1888 Our president was not present and we missed her very much. Mrs. Oakes led the meeting although she was confined to the lounge most of the time. We were asked to pray that the curse of intemperance might be removed from our land.

Thursday evening June 21st Mrs. Oakes a loved sister passed to rest. She was a willing worker and we shall all miss her earnest helpful words. Her family have our sincere and heartfelt sympathy. May we so live that it may be said of us as it was of her, that we have kept the faith.

The Kings Daughters made two dresses and some aprons. The cloth furnished by the mothers for the children of the poor family before mentioned.

June 29th 1888 The meeting was held at Mrs. Smiths and she led the meeting, there were quite a number present. It was agreed to commence the meetings promptly at three and to devote the last fifteen minutes of the hour to business.

July 13th 1888 The meeting was held at Mrs Pendleton's Carrie Oakes led the meeting

July 27th 1888 The meeting was held at Mrs Porter's Carrie Gale led.

Aug 10th 1888 The meeting was at Mrs Wetherell's Mrs Moore read a letter from a missionary lady in Cordia which was very interesting.

Aug 24th 1888 The meeting was held at Mrs Smith's Mrs Moore was not there nor the one who was appointed to lead the meeting so Mrs Smith led it she read the fifty fifth Psalm. The King's Daughter is all glorious within!

Sept 23rd The meeting was held at Mrs Whitford's Miss N. Oakes was appointed to lead but was not present. A very good meeting three S.D. present three others.

Sept 27th The meeting was held at Mrs read the sixth of Galatians. Mrs Morse read one of the "Deaconesses" letters. Carrie Gale read a piece. The name our circle has taken is - Over Ready. The meeting closed with Miss Jahn.

Nov. 9th The Kings Daughters met at Sherrywood Millard. Kathie Millard led. Five of the Kings Daughters present three others. The meeting was not quite so interesting as some others have been.

$5.00 Was sent to the Inland Mission South Africa the fore part of Sept, 1888. In Sept. articles were sent to the N. D. in Stamford to go into their Christmas box for India.

Nov. 23<sup>d</sup> The King's Daughters met with Mrs M. C. Dean. There were but seven present. President and vice president absent. Miss Carrie Oakes led the meeting; the fifteenth chapter of John was read. Mrs Bottoms' New Year's Greeting to the King's Daughters was read by the secretary, a piece entitled the Falling Leaves was read by the leader. We must strive to make our meetings better.

Nov. 30th The meeting was at Mrs Pendleton's. All but two of the members were present, one that had never been before. Mrs Pendleton joined today so now we number ten. Miss Pendleton led the meeting, the 4th chap. of Matt. was read, then we sang What a Friend We Have in Jesus. Miss Smith read the consecration prayer of the King's Daughters, also a story for young ladies from the Advocate. Carrie Gale read the piece entitled Encouraging Words. Nearly all offered prayer. Each in turn repeated a verse of scripture, then the meeting closed with the singing of the closing hymn of the King's Daughters, then Mizpah. We agreed to send B.S. to Miss Smith and to ask her to write us a letter.

Dec 8th 1888 Sent for the Silver Cross for our circle.

Jan. 16th 1889

Jan. 4th 1889

Jan. 11th 1889

Jan. 19th 1889 Our meeting was at Mr. Oakes. The last time we met there Mrs. Oakes was with us & she is in the land where there is no sadness, neither sorrow nor crying. There were eight of us present besides Dave Oakes. Selections were read by Miss Penellaton, Leanne Gale and Leanne Oakes, a letter to the King's Daughters from Miss Smith was read by Hattie Millard. The motion was made and carried that we have an annual fee of at least 25-cs.

The meeting proved helpful to all I trust. A part of the 24th chapt. of Matt. was read & it warned us to be ready for Christ when He comes.

Jan. 27th 1889

Feb 2<sup>d</sup> The meeting was at Mrs. Thompson's. The subject was the last of the 5th camp. A paper was read, and it seemed as how careful we should be to keep the Sabbath. Mrs. Thompson read two pieces, one entitled The Victor, a poem about us what has come to us in the light of Christ. A letter was read by the author, a short piece entitled Trust in Jesus. The meeting closed as usual with our song and we got out singing.

Feb 9th The Kings Daughters met at Mrs. Pakes.
Barrie Pakes led, a good meeting is reported.

Mar 2<sup>d</sup> The meeting was at Mrs. Pakes. The subject was the 5th camp. A paper was read, and it seemed as how careful we should be to keep the Sabbath. Mrs. Thompson read two pieces, one entitled The Victor, a poem about us what has come to us in the light of Christ. A letter was read by the author, a short piece entitled Trust in Jesus.
The meeting closed as usual with our song and we got out singing.

Mar 9th The meeting was at Mr. Pakes. Several young girls were present. Mrs. Smith led the meeting, it was suggested that we help Mrs. Thompson, since she has few things have been given her for the children.

There were just six at the meeting. Mrs. Smith & Carrie Johnson read a devotion. Mrs. Johnson also read a prayer. The King's Daughters were present. It was agreed that the next meeting be a conference meeting.

June 25th There were not present, Mrs. Harrison led the meeting. At 8:00 sort of an evening meeting, some told what they had done for the Lord. Mrs. Harrison led us to sing current songs. A mission offering was taken and a collection was given for the Lord's Supper.

July 26th Miss Pendleton led the meeting & sang.
There were not as many present as Mrs. Harrison led in prayer. Several collections were taken.

King's Daughters present.

October 14, 1887 The Kings Chapter held their annual meeting at Mrs. A. H. H. H.

The Kings Chapter were all present but three, one of them was missed away. The 21 officers were all elected.
It was voted to have an annual fair to raise money, and also that we subscribe for the Silver River another year and another to give to the town to it in entertainment of some kind was spoken of.

Oct. 28 The Kings & daughters met with Mrs. Benson Remondson.

Nov. 9 The Kings & daughters met with Mrs. Benson.

Nov. 23 A meeting at Mrs. Harrison's

Dec. 20 a meeting at Mrs. Rufus Whitford's, Shirley attended

Jan. 8, 1890 The Kings & daughters met with Mrs. Lane
Lake.

Jan. 15, 1890 The Kings met with Mrs. Lane Stanton.
There were six of us in all, and we had a good meeting led by Mrs. Stanton. We have finally adopted for our 1st purpose to help our sister in the prison meeting; by having a committee to take part in meetings; we sealed the covenant by all the Kings hands with our president.

March 26th 1870 Three of us met with Mrs.
and Miss Pinchett. Plans of working were discussed, a few ways of raising money. We think we shall have a fair or festival in the fall.
and we agreed to send $2.00 to Emma C. Mason Chairman of committee for work among the Lumbermen and Miners in the Northwest.

May 8, 1870 The Kings Daughters met with the Wesleyan Society at the Conference Room.

May 22 1870 Three of us met at Mrs. Corrie's and we had a pretty good meeting.

June 5. The Kings Daughters met with Mrs. and Miss Pinchett, a good meeting is reported, fine present.

June 19.

Three of us went to Mrs. Peter Smith another lady is present also making services in all the churches here, we also read a relation about the hymn - Jesus Loves Me. We had a pretty good meeting but not as full.

July 10, 1870. A meeting <sup>was</sup> with Miss Hattie Willard
There were eight of us in all, counting six children, Miss Hattie's son, the chapter read was W. W. S. Three missionary letters were read, two from Amanda Whipple's Mission, and one from Beyers, describing a meeting. Quite a number took part in sentence prayers. A fair & good meeting Sept. 27, 1870

The King's Daughters met with Miss Katharine Willard. As usual present Miss Willard and Miss Smith read a selection; nearly repeated verses.
a good meeting.

Oct. 1, 1870 The King's Daughters held their annual meeting today at the house of Miss Willard. There were nine of us present, and we had a very interesting and full one. President Charles read a prayer, and we sang a verse. It was remembered that other societies had a matter but we had not, and this was suggested "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might," and it was brought to a question and was not really adopted. The end of the meeting was good.

Nov. 23, 1870 Our meeting I had with our sister Mary Ann. Sister John took charge of the the things. The sister's name was read & I read passages of scripture & gave out also two relations. In the afternoon I gave to my sister a piece of paper but thought she would be so busy with her school that she would not be able to be present.

Nov. 6, 1870. I met with the the women, who had a meeting. The our 11th number was small the meeting was fairly good.

Nov. December 18, 1870 The King's Daughters had a little meeting with Miss Smith; only our sister Mary Ann present.

Feb. 12, 1871 Two of our members met with Miss Smith; others were unable to be present. It was decided to have the meetings once a month, and to give the meeting in the usual way, make up the money, so while we are busy help.

careless in carrying out the work, but it is done.

Mar. 17th 1890 Three of our members met with our aged sister Mrs. Foster. We expected to quilt but found it done before we got there, so held our meeting the same as usual, singing our hymn books. The lectures were read by Mrs. Moore, and letters and circulars from Miss Mason concerning work among the Lumbermen and Miners in the North-west. by Hattie Willard. Miss Angleton described the packing of the barrel for the Home she had to get into the barrel five times in order to pack things down so she could get them all in. I think it was nearly decided to have the meeting the first Thursday in the month.

June 11.

The King's Daughters met with their sister who has been quite sick with a gripp has not been able to get out much till within two weeks we are glad to have her with us again. Only five of our circle present, Mrs. Moore met with us. It was suggested that perhaps it would be a good plan for the King's Daughters and the Missionary Society to join hands and go together. It was also proposed that we have our meetings the second Tuesday of each month. We might call it a conversation meeting. After repeating a verse around, we arose and joined in our Hymn.

July 16. 1891 The King's Daughters met with Mrs. Stanton. Five of them in all. Miss Ponderton led the meeting. After having a little prayer meeting, they did quite a little sewing.

Sept. 24. 1891. The meeting was at Mrs. Ponderton's. Five of us in all. We were glad to notice two of our number who rarely attend, one who has not been met with us in over a year. Our president led the meeting, reading a portion of the 12th chap. of John, about Mary anointing Jesus. After singing "What a Friend We Have in Jesus", our president in prayer, praying earnestly for two of our members who are sick; two others followed in prayer, then, after singing another song we laid aside our Bibles and hymn books and went to work; one making a dress skirt, one cutting out a

Secretary's Report For Year Ending
September 16, 1887

Number of meetings held, Twenty six.
On December 28, 1886 was sent to Miss
M. J. Smith of Jonifer, Alabama.
The first of May a box of wild flowers was sent to a mission in New Haven.

In August 1886 was given to the Church Repair Fund, for debt.

A little individual work has been done.

We have more meetings to report than last year, but they have not been quite so well attended.

The interest has seemed to lag at times, but on the whole has held good.

Respectfully Submitted.

was pieced by our oldest member who is nearly 71 years old.
This quilt was all for the "Home For The Blind" etc."

Oct 14. 1891 A very informal meeting, a Bee meeting, we worked and bugged, but did not sing or pray. Four of our members were present and two of our friends met with us. We tackled a quilt pieced by our oldest member Mrs Morse, who is <sup>nearly</sup> 50 years old. We spent a very pleasant afternoon.

Oct 23<sup>d</sup> 1891 No annual yet not members enough present only four, and two friends who we hope will join us sometime. Our president led the meeting, read a portion of the eighth chapter of Romans "For that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall we not with him also, freely give us all things?" "There more than conquerors through him that loved us."
After prayer and one verse of a song we went to work and planned and partly set together, a quilt, which is to be sent to Miss M. J. Smith; this quilt was pieced by members of the annex and Concordia society.

Secretary's Report For The Closing Sept. 16. 1893

Number of meetings held since our annual meeting - Thirteen Two new members have been added to our circle this year making the number of resident members eleven, there are three non-resident members, making fourteen in all.

Last Spring
we became interested in a mission among the Lumbermen and Miners in Idaho to west, and two dollars were contributed as well money towards a new building to be erected at Harold Hill; and some of our members are saving papers to send them this fall.

Our president has also sent a good man. I have heard that it is intended to be placed for our mission work, to help our pastor in the prayer meeting, and I hope we shall not forget to it.

I think we are yet bound to raise funds to help us to do something this week.

I hope we are all learning to do the little things.

Secretary's Report.

Number of meetings held since the Annual meeting none. The last meeting was a Bee meeting, that is we worked and bugged but did not sing or pray. We had expected to have the annual meeting there but on <sup>to</sup> account of numbers, and all not being at hand in time, we failed in our purpose.

As a circle we have done nothing until <sup>at</sup> the last three meetings, when we taken up sewing for the Home For The Friendless. At the Bee meeting we tackled a quilt, which was pieced by the oldest member of our circle. Our president with a little help from several of our members and a few friends sent a large barrel to the Home at Christmas. I have also sent a box to N. C., and a box of books to Dakota, besides sending papers to different places.

there have sent papers also.

One     We cannot tell of the home life, but we believe we are learning if ever so slowly, how to -

Look up and not down,

Look out and not in,

Look forward and not backwards,
and to lend a hand, "In His Name".

Let us <sup>then</sup> look forward <sup>and strive to do</sup> to more and better work this coming year with eyes wide open, and hearts and hands Over Board "In His Name".

April 30th 1892 The King's Daughters met with their president Miss Olive Middleton four members present, and one friend Miss Olive L. Mrs. Manly had letters from three Home Missionaries, also from the president of the Home Missionary Society. The meeting closed with as usual with the singing.

In March a meeting of the King's Daughters and others was called for the purpose of organizing a Home Missionary Society only four ladies were present. A society was partly organized but no officers chosen.
It was agreed that the King's Daughters and the Missionary Society should hold their meetings together. At this time Mrs Manly and Mrs Isaac Beebe joined our circle. We are glad to welcome them.

July 21st 1892 The King's Daughters met with our aged sister Mrs Morse who is quite feeble. Five of our number present besides members of Mrs Morse's family and a friend from Hunter, N.Y. Miss Ingraham. The chapter read was one chosen by Mrs Morse, 1 Thess. 5.

Three missionary letters were read. From missionaries in Mexico, Japan, and India.
Also a sermon or talk from the Sabbath Reading. The meeting closed with the song
"Bless the Lord" and Misses.

July 3: 1898 Grandma Morse passed to "rest"
She was 82 years of age. She was "ever ready" in every good work.

June 15th 1899 Our President Miss Alice Pendleton passed into "Heavenly Rest" We miss her everywhere in connection with our church and charitable work. "She knew what she could do" The poor and needy have lost a friend, and the church

a faithful helper.
